From the Collector of Madras Dl.1308/49, dated 16-7-50.
From the Director of Controlled Commodities Rc.18427/50, dated 27-9-50.

ORDER:

The question arose whether exporters of Mill Cloth and Yarn to foreign countries should obtain licence and pay the security deposit under the Madras Cloth (Dealers) Control and the Madras Yarn (Dealers) Control Order 1948. order 1948. The Government consider that exporters who do not handle the goods meant for export but arrange with the mills direct for shipment and get the relative invoices and documents on payment, need not obtain a licence. Other exporters who stock the goods in their godowns before shipment should obtain a licence under the Madras Cloth (Dealers) Control order 1948 or the Madras Yarn (Dealers) Control order 1948 as the case may be and pay the prescribed security deposit.
